181 BOYS ARE TO DEPART FROM OGDEN AT 9 P. M., ON AUG. 28, IN RESPONSE TO NATION'S CALL

Instructions for the departure of the big August quota for Camp Lewis were received today by both city and county draft boards. The former will send 175 men and the latter six men. The special carrying the soldiers will leave Ogden at 9 p. m., August 28, and will arrive at Camp Lewis at 9 a. m., August 30.

Since the departure of these men represents the biggest draft the city and county has filed and will take more young men out of Ogden than at any other time it has been suggested that the citizens take it upon themselves to celebrate the day in patriotic fashion. Flags and bunting ought to be displayed on houses and buildings, automobiles decorated and other marks of respect shown to the men who will leave.

This draft will virtually exhaust the "surplus" of Ogden's young men, taking all of class one except a handful kept a little longer because of industrial necessity. It will be the city's final contribution to the war of the men who, through circumstance, were subject to first call, and suggestions have been made on all sides that it be observed in fitting fashion.

The speakers were Superintendent E. S. Hinckley of the State Industrial School, and Arthur Wooley, attorney-at-law of this city.

The men's branch of the Four-Minute organization holds these meetings about ten days prior to beginning work on any bulletin, so that the members may familiarize themselves with the material for some time before making public presentation of the same.

There were present today the following: Judge George S. Barker, Robert I. Burton, John C. Davis, Stuart P. Dobbs, Supt. Frank M. Driggs, Rev. Christian R. Garver, George Halverson, Supt. E. S. ## NEW WAR SONG SENT HOME BY LIEUTENANT

First Lieutenant C. E. Wardleigh, now of the Medical Reserve corps of the 63rd infantry, passed through Salt Lake yesterday en route to an eastern concentration camp. Lieutenant Wardleigh was one of the best known doctors of this city.

In a letter to his brother, Dr. Wardleigh sent a copy of the following song which he says the boys of the 63rd infantry are going to take to the front. The song is written to the music of "Just a Little Bit of Heaven."

"Just a Little Bit of Hell!" Have you heard the tale about the land that lies beyond the Rhine, And who it was discovered that home of huns and swine?

One day old Satan felt distressed, the sparks flew from his eyes, And he said: "I'll find another home somewhere beneath the skies."

Chorus: So old Satan found a spot on earth, all steeped in blood and crime, And he hollers out with all his might: "This bit of earth is mine!"

'Tis the land of Huns and kultur, is this little bit of hell? Where they butcher babies and mothers, as they murdered Nurse Cavell.

They sent their troops in submarines to murder on the sea, And the rotten kaiser never thought what would the harvest be; So the Devil sent for all his mob and he shouted out with glee:

"I am going to move my demons here and he called it Germany!"

CATTLE RAISERS ARE ASKING AID

CHICAGO, Aug. 15—An appeal to Secretary McAdoo for government aid in financing cattle-raising was telegraphed today by W. R. Tagg, president of the National Livestock Exchange.

Mr. Tagg states that cattlemen for the most part can get only six months loans and asks an appropriation by congress from which 12 months loans can be made. Unless this is done he says herds will decrease in the next two years. He explains that unusual climatic and financial conditions are curtailing the buying of light stock for feeding, and affecting breeding herds.

ROBERT A. PEART NOW IN FRANCE TO DO HIS PART

Robert A. Peart, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Peart, 2348 Madison avenue, has written an inspiring letter to his father in which he states he is going to stay in France with Uncle Sam's warriors until the job is finished.

"Bob" Peart is well known among the young men of Ogden. About three years and a half ago he was with the Ogden Standard. He enlisted in the signal corps of the army seven months ago and has been in France about one month.

Mr. and Mrs. Peart have three sons fighting in the forces of democracy, two other sons being in the British army.

The letter follows: "My dear father: Just a line to let you know I am alive 'somewhere in France.' Glad to say we arrived at our destination safely and am feeling first class. I can assure you this is a wonderful experience we boys are getting and besides we consider it a privilege in being able to come to the aid of France at the eleventh hour.

"We had a splendid trip across the Atlantic and glad to say we outwitted the submarines. My observations of France thus far I can not write on paper, but this part where we are located is indeed very fine. Just now we are enjoying real summer weather with lots of sunshine, vegetation, flowers are in full bloom and the birds cheer us with their merry warble.

"I really seem strange that we are in the war zone. While I was strolling along the country a few days ago on guard duty, I was halted by the sweet strains of music by a military band a short distance away. They were playing that beautiful piece entitled 'My Little Grey Home in the West.' It sure did appeal to me and carried me back to my home in the west of the great U. S. A. like thousands of others, I felt one of the best homes in the land and we are all looking forward to a speedy return when we have accomplished our mission here in this country.

"America has a great work to perform and her sons are here to uphold the glorious traits of liberty and freedom for which the Red, White and Blue stand.

"I must say we are all very busy and we are going into the harness with strong arms and brave hearts. I may say we are well located, have plenty to eat, all are feeling good and sleeping well.

"Of course we would like to have been home to celebrate the glorious Fourth of July, but maybe at the next one we will make up for what we missed.

"I hope you are all well at home. You are always in my thoughts, and knowing that I am remembered it is indeed a source of comfort to me. Please write often and tell all at home to send me a few lines. Let's have a little 'home news.' Remember me to my friends. I will write to them as soon as I can. Your soldier son, (Signed) Robert A. Peart."

He will have direct charge of the party assigned to his care and be held responsible for the enforcement of these regulations, together with the rules of the railroad companies over whose lines the party may travel. Immediately upon arrival he will make a full report to the military authorities of the camp of the conduct of his party en route.

OGDEN HAS SENT 633 DRAFTED TO CAMP AND HAS MEN LEFT IN CLASS ONE OF 1917 AND 1918

The report submitted by the city draft board to the state headquarters today shows that 633 men have been inducted into the service by the board since the law became effective. This is exclusive, of course, of voluntary enlistments.

Of the 1917 class of registrants there are thirty-one in class one, after all present calls have been filled; there are sixty-five in limited service classes; twenty-five in the emergency class; three have not been examined.

Of the 1918 class, there are eighty-two in class one, examined and ready for induction; there are two in limited service class; there are three delinquents; three have not been examined and there are thirty-three inducted and called for induction.

All local boards are instructed to immediately start publicity campaigns in order that those required to register will have ample notice.

Register at Offices. "In view of the comparatively small number to be registered it will not be necessary to provide as many registration places within the jurisdiction of local boards as on June 5, 1918. Each local board is notified to appoint a registrar for each place of registration to be established within its jurisdiction. A member of the local board will act in the capacity of chief registrar at each place of registration."

The Weber county men will register at the local board's office in the court house. The city men will probably register at the city board's office on 24th street.

The number from both districts is expected to be small.

Expect About 500. As a result of this special registration, it is estimated by Captain Fitz Gerald that Utah will enroll approximately 500 men. Out of this total 125 are expected to come from Salt Lake City and fifty from Salt Lake county.

The call for this extra registration, it is announced, is to obtain a sufficient number of registrants to meet the September calls which are likely to be made upon the local draft boards. It is expected that the calls for August will practically exhaust the number of Class 1 men available at the present time. The total for the month is 1874, divided as follows: August 1, 49; August 5, 250; August 15, 450; August 26, 1125. The last call for this month is the largest single requirement ever made of Utah under the selective service law.

Slight readjustments of quotas, as between local boards which have small deficiencies, and those which have excesses in number of available Class 1 men, will be made to compensate these differences and equalize the supply so as to fill all of the August requirements. The extra registration called for August 24 will supply enough men, it is anticipated by draft officials, to meet the September calls. Subsequent requirements will be met from the general registration of men from 18 to 45 years of age expected to be called for September 5.

CHILD WELFARE WORK AT THE LOCAL ROOMS

The Child Welfare rooms, at the corner of Washington avenue and Twenty-fifth street, over Marshall's Drug store, opened this week. Several mothers brought their children to be weighed and measured.

The nurse in charge says she is very enthusiastic about the splendid shape in which the city commissioners have put the room, and she is now particularly anxious that all children under six years of age who have not been weighed and measured should be brought during the hours that have been announced—from 9 to 12 in the morning on Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday of each week.

The nurse also states that she is eager to have all children who have been weighed and measured and were found under weight or under sized, brought to the headquarters for re-examination and arrangement for clinic work or definite directions. This, of course, is the purpose of the government in insisting on the weighing and measuring, and it has a right to expect the splendid co-operation from the citizens in this line of work that has been found in all the other requests that have been made by the government during the war.

WORLD'S MARKETS

NEW YORK, Aug. 15—Trifling changes attended the dull and irregular opening of today's stock market, war news being subordinated to tighter monetary conditions. Leaders reacted slightly from yesterday's final quotation, United States Steel and other industrials as well as active rails denoting moderate pressure. Fractional advances were made by Marine preferred and a few specialties. American Writing Paper preferred was conspicuous for its gain of 3 1/4 points in the first half hour.

Steady selling of United States Steel at an extreme decline of a point was mainly responsible for the further irregularity of the morning. Many industrials reacted to the same degree with American Smelting, Industrial Alcohol and Sumatra Tobacco. Baldwin Locomotive lost 2 points. Transcontinental rails fell back with grangers, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific becoming moderately heavy. The only leader to show marked strength was Marine preferred which made a two point advance at midday. Liberty 3 1/2's duplicated the year's maximum of 100.08.
